

Kulishov Dmitry

Matveevich

Kulishov Dmitry Matveevich was born in August 1907 in the Voronezh region. Until 1914, he lived in the village in a peasant family. Until 1923, he worked as a farmer. From 1923 to 1925, he worked at a raw material procurement plant. From 1930 to 1941, he worked at the enterprises of the city of Ivanovo. From September 1941, he was taken to the front until May 1942 (Krasnogvardeets, 29th formation). From May 3, 1942, he took courses for a second Lieutenant. After a certain time, he was promoted to senior Lieutenant. He was wounded at the front. Had a significant restriction of movement in the right knee joint. Also, as a result of being wounded at the front by a fragment of a mine, he received a non-healing wound to his right hip. He died in 1961.

(information is taken from personal biography and references about diseases and injuries of Dmitry Kulishov)

